2. ATM Banking System

Program Description: Develop a program that simulates an ATM with options to check balance, deposit money, withdraw money, and exit. The program should maintain a running balance and prevent withdrawals that would result in a negative balance.